Fourteen spins a week on radio Dallas Fort Worth KHYI (The Range), Crazy in Love gallops down twang and thunder trail. Alt/country/rock Rod Russell Ides, a dark horse riding outta nowhere is getting close to somewhere.

Crazy in Love blazed across Europe last summer, where spin jockeys played deep into the album. Virtually every tune rode the airwaves: from the thunderous guitar-driven, "Angels Unforgiving" to the lazy twang of "Crazy in Love."

"As talented as anyone picking up a Grammy," the Austin Chronicle raved.

"An impressive singer-songwriter," announced Thor Christensen in the Dallas Morning News, "Mr. Ides' dusty voice recalls Tom Waits by way of Neil Young, while his best tracks fuse Texas swing with Caribbean grooves. Kenny Withrow produced the CD, and other New Bohemians guest-star, including Edie Brickell (who penned one of the tunes). Judging from the breezy twang of "Leanin' Toward Lovin' You," she may have a future as a country tunesmith."
