Spoonfed Tribe is a collection of Artists and Performers from DFW, TX. In 1999, the band debuted with great impact and started touring the region, while releasing 3 independent albums. Then, in 2003, the Tribe spent the next 4 years touring the US, spreading the vibe, and, during that time, releasing a 4th.

Spoonfed is a Solid, Original, Avant-Garde / Rock n Roll Act with a new Record, an extravagant live show (described as persuasive percussion and melodic mood manipulation), and a quickly growing fan base throughout the country.

From Lollapalooza and High Sierra (04), to Joshua Tree and Voodoo Music Fests (05 - 06), the Tribe has gained great momentum, and has no plans on slowing down.

The new Project, "Public Service Announcement", has a New Sound, and is poised for some heavy Radio Play, National Distribution, and a new position in the Scene for Spoonfed Tribe!

"Though Spoonfed members might chafe at the thought, their unspoken understood goal is to reach progressively more people - to spread universal mindedness" - Anthony Mariani (FW Weekly)

"Based on their recorded work, I would guess (Spoonfed Tribe) could keep the most open-minded music fan on their toes" - On the Verge (Relix Magazine)

"The music flowed like the magic that was everywhere, another unexpected pleasure" - Forrest Reda (Jambase.com)
